Boeing Super Hornet Completes Sea Trials

The F/A-18E/F Super Hornet prepares to land on the deck of the USS Harry S. Truman (CVN 75). Because the Super Hornet is a carrier-based aircraft it is equipped with a tailhook that will catch one of the four steel cables stretched across the deck, bringing the plane to a complete stop in about 320 feet.