Boeing and DHL Launch 757 Freighter Conversion/Lease Program

A Boeing 757 Special Freighter (SF) in DHL Worldwide Express livery is shown here in an artist's rendering. The Boeing Company and DHL today signed an innovative deal that will provide 44 757SFs to DHL under a multi-year lease arrangement. The deal launches a new 757-freighter conversion and fleet management program where Boeing also will maintain the airplanes for DHL under a separate maintenance and engineering agreement.
