

Boeing to Equip Cruise Missiles with Hard-Target Warhead

Boeing to Equip Cruise Missiles with Hard-Target Warhead

The Conventional Air Launched Cruise Missile (CALCM) is removed from its shipping crate and loaded on an assembly dolly at the Boeing Weapons Programs facility in St. Charles, Missouri. Four CALCM were received from the Camp Navaho, Arizona storage depot on May 10, 1999.

###
