Address By Boeing Senior Executive to Transportation Conference to be Webcast

A presentation by Alan Mulally, Boeing senior vice president and president of Commercial Airplanes, to the Bear Stearns Eighth Annual Commercial Aerospace Conference on Jan. 30, will be webcast on the Internet.

Time of the webcast from New York will be from 1:45 - 3:00 EST, on Tuesday, Jan. 30. The live audio webcast of Mulally's presentation, as well as the slide materials used in his speech, will be available at www.boeing.com on the Internet. The presentation will be also archived on this site for future use.

Mulally is expected to discuss Boeing's financial outlook, and how it is focused on delivering value by running healthy core businesses, leveraging core strengths into new products and services, and opening new frontiers.

Individuals may listen to the presentation on the Internet at www.boeing.com. However, they are urged to check the website ahead of time to ensure their computers are configured for the audio stream and slide presentation. Instructions for obtaining the correct, downloadable software will be posted on the site beginning Monday, Jan. 29.

Bear Stearns will make an audio webcast available of the entire conference at www.bearstearns.com.
