Hawaiian Airlines Receives First Boeing 717

Paul Casey (left), vice chairman of Hawaiian Airlines, receives a model of the new Boeing 717 from Jim Phillips, vice president and general manager of the Long Beach Division, during a ceremony in rain-soaked Southern California, celebrating the first 717 delivery to the island carrier. The airplane is one of 13 717-200s that Hawaiian will receive this year.

###

For further information:
Warren Lamb
(562) 593-3269