Boeing Delivers Kenya Airways' First 767

Kenya Airways has received its first Boeing 767-300ER (Extended Range) airplane. This is the first of three that will be leased through an agreement with GE Capital Aviation Services (GECAS). Boeing will deliver two additional 767s to the airline, one in June and one in July of this year. GECAS provides aviation solutions for 170 customers and support on 1,100 airplanes in 60 countries worldwide.
