

Boeing Photo Release: Boeing Laptop Software Boosts Flight Deck Efficiency

The Boeing Company has introduced a software application that streamlines flight crew procedures. The new Boeing Laptop Tool increases operational efficiencies by optimizing takeoff and landing calculations. Used in a laptop computer, it also can provide quick access to the digital versions of paper manuals that pilots typically carry aboard airplanes, including the Flight Manual, Dispatch Deviations Guide, Minimum Equipment List and other documents.

###

For further information:
Boeing Commercial Aviation Services
206-544-9058
