Boeing Business Jets Shows Staying Power As Major Player In General Aviation

The Boeing Business Jet (BBJ) demonstrates its versatility in a variety of applications - as a corporate shuttle, a business tool or VIP transport. Since the program's inception in 1996, Boeing Business Jets has logged orders and commitments for 83 BBJs. Customers include private individuals, heads of state, the armed forces and corporations such as General Electric, PrivatAir, Grupo Omnilife and Executive Jet.
