

Boeing Joint Common Missile Flight Test Successful

Boeing Joint Common Missile Flight Test Successful

Boeing prototype Joint Common Missile launches from U.S. Army testing range at Yuma Proving Grounds, Ariz. The test demonstrated the Boeing Joint Common Missile's ability to exceed all range requirements using an advanced rocket motor developed by ATK (Alliant Techsystems) and represents significant risk reduction for the upcoming Joint Common Missile System Development and Demonstration (SDD) Program.

###

For further information:

Robert A. Algarotti

314-233-1532
