

Cathay Pacific Adds to Boeing 777 Fleet

Cathay Pacific Airways announced that the Hong Kong-based carrier has ordered two Boeing 777-300s, for delivery in 2005 and 2006. Cathay is a long time 777 customer, dating back to 1996, and currently operates 10 777-300s and five 777-200s.

The new airplanes will be used on longer regional routes.
