

Boeing ScanEagle UAV Shines During Joint Forces Command Exercise

Boeing's ScanEagle UAV takes off via a wedge catapult launcher during the U.S. Joint Forces Command's Forward Look III exercise. For the exercise ScanEagle provided intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance coverage and time-sensitive targeting to a network of UAVs, ground stations, ships and other airborne assets.

###
