First Choice Airways First in United Kingdom to Fly Boeing 7E7

The Boeing 7E7 will fly the skies of the United Kingdom in First Choice Airways livery beginning in 2009. First Choice, which offers both charter and scheduled service and is based near London , plans to acquire six 7E7-8 jetliners. The carrier will be among the first to offer passengers the 7E7's unique cabin features, including larger windows, wider aisles and higher humidity.
