

Fifth Boeing GMD Interceptor Placed in Silo at Alaska Site

Fifth Boeing GMD Interceptor Placed in Silo at Alaska Site

The Boeing Ground-based Midcourse Defense (GMD) team emplaced the fifth GMD interceptor in an underground silo at Fort Greely, Alaska. Once in the silos, the interceptors are constantly monitored to ensure proper functioning of electronics and to gauge internal pressure and temperature of the propellants.

###

For further information:

Kerry A. Gildea

Boeing Missile Defense Systems

(703) 414-6341

kerry.a.gildea@boeing.com

Rick Lehner

Missile Defense Agency

(703) 697-8997

richard.lehner@mda.mil
