Phillip de St. Aubin honored as one of Top 50 Hispanics

Phillip de St. Aubin, Boeing vice president of International Relations, was selected by*Hispanic Engineer and Information Technology* magazine as one of the "50 most important Hispanics in technology and business for 2004." At a ceremony on September 17th in Nashville, Tenn. de St. Aubin and other honorees were presented with the prestigious national award for their outstanding work and technology leadership. The list of winners includes many of the highest-achieving Hispanic executives, managers, and researchers in industry, government, and academia. "I feel that my mission is to act as a catalyst for bringing diverse ideas, processes and people together to ultimately assist in the globalization of Boeing," says de St. Aubin.
