Nakamura Ganjiro III Tours Boeing Commercial Airplanes Everett Plant

Boeing is a sponsor of the troupe's U.S. Tour, with performances in Seattle, Wash., Berkeley, Calif., and Los Angeles, Calif., during the month of June. The Grand Kabuki's performance in Seattle was a production of the Boeing Dreamliner Arts Festival June 8 -13, which celebrated and explored the vibrant contemporary and traditional art scenes in Asia and the United States.
