Boeing Delivers Aeromexico's First 777-200ER

Aeromexico, Mexico's largest airline, today took delivery of its first 777 jetliner from Boeing at a ceremony attended by Hispanic dignitaries, community leaders and Washington Gov. Christine Gregoire. With the delivery, Aeromexico also becomes the first airline in the Americas to receive Boeing's Class 3 Electronic Flight Bag. The airline will take a second 777-200ER in April.
