Boeing Factory Mural Sets Guinness World Record

The factory building in Everett, Wash., home of the 747, 767, 777 and 787, recently got a new look. A mural has been applied to all six factory doors, which range in size from 82 feet high by 300 feet wide to 82 feet high by 350 feet wide, each about the length of a National Football League (NFL) field.
