Continental Becomes 737-900ER Americas Launch Customer

Continental Airlines converted part of a 737 order announced last month for 12 of the newly launched 737-900ERs. Continental will receive these airplanes in 2008. It is also the first two-class carrier to opt for the 737-900ER.

###

For further information:
Nicolaas Groeneveld-Meijer
International and Sales Communications
206-766-2229