Boeing Signs Contract for Korea's EX Airborne Early Warning and Control Program

Boeing has signed a $1.59 billion contract to provide four 737 airborne early warning and control systems for the Republic of Korea's EX program. Delivery of the first aircraft is scheduled for 2011. The remaining three aircraft will be delivered in 2012.

###

For further information:
Dave Sloan
Boeing Integrated Defense Systems
(253) 657-3046
david.a.sloan@boeing.com
Maggie Kymn
In Korea:
The Boeing Company
+822 773 2491
maggie.j.kymn@boeing.com