Boeing, Korean Air Finalize Major Jetliner Order

Boeing and Korean Air have finalized an order for 25 new jetliners -- 10 777-300ERs, five 747-8 Freighters, five 777 Freighters and five Next-Generation 737s. Korean Air and Boeing have enjoyed a 35-year relationship that has encompassed over 120 airplanes ordered, not including today's order, and the airline's fleet includes a number of Boeing models.
