

Boeing and Canada Sign Deal for Four C-17s

Boeing and Canada Sign Deal for Four C-17s

In this artist's conception, a Canadian C-17 airlifter flies over Ottawa, Canada's capitol city, where the Canadian government today announced it had reached contract agreement to purchase four C-17 Globemaster IIIs from Boeing. Boeing will deliver the first Canadian C-17 as early as fall 2007.

###

For further information:

Gary Lesser

C-17 Communications

office: 562-593-5233

gary.a.lessner@boeing.com

Paul Lewis

Director of Operations & International Communications Precision Engagement & Mobility Systems

office: 562-797-2186

mobile: 562-234-1391

paul.j.lewis2@boeing.com
