Boeing, Xiamen Airlines Identify 25-Airplane Next-Generation 737 Order

Boeing [NYSE: BA] and Xiamen Airlines today identified the Xiamen, China-based carrier as the customer for 25 Next-Generation 737-800s listed as unidentified on Boeing's Orders & Deliveries Web site in early August. Xiamen Airlines today also celebrated the delivery of a 737-800 which will enter its all-Boeing fleet. In December 2005, Xiamen set a milestone when its order for 10 737-800s took the 737 family past the historic 6000th order mark. The airplane delivered today is one of the 10 ordered in 2005.
