

Boeing Portland Employees Commemorate an Environmental Achievement

In recognition of The Boeing Company's [NYSE: BA] announcement today that its Fabrication manufacturing facility in Portland, Ore., has received International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 14001 certification, employees at the site create the acronym "ISO". The achievement confirms Boeing's Portland facility has a certified system in place to monitor, manage and continuously improve its environmental management system.

###

For further information:
Carrie Thearle
Boeing Communications
253-931-3779
