Boeing, DAE Sign Agreement at Dubai Air Show

Boeing and Dubai Aerospace Enterprise (DAE) today signed a proposal acceptance at the Dubai Air Show for 100 airplanes that includes four of Boeing's production models (70 737s and a mix of 787s, 777s and 747s). This agreement follows a memorandum of understanding to forge a strategic partnership signed by Boeing and Dubai Aerospace Enterprise (DAE) in Paris on June 18, 2007. Boeing is honored by DAE's decision and looks forward to concluding contract negotiations in the near future. Once finalized, the order will be added to Boeing Orders & Deliveries Web site.

###

For further information:
Brian Walker
Boeing Commercial Airplanes Communications
Middle East & Africa