Boeing Delivers 50th 767 to Japan Airlines

SEATTLE, May 11 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Boeing [BA:NYSE] delivered the 50th 767 jetliner to Japan Airlines (JAL), the fifth-largest 767 operator in the world.

The 767-300ER is the 404th Boeing airplane delivered to Tokyo-based JAL Group, a Boeing- and McDonnell Douglas-heritage customer since 1960.

Here, the new JAL jet takes to the air at Paine Field in Everett, Wash., on May 7 for its ferry flight to Narita Airport in Japan.

# #

Contacts:
Miles Kotay
Boeing Commercial Airplanes Communications
+1 206 766 2923
miles.kotay@boeing.com

Kevan Goff-Parker
Boeing Commercial Airplanes Communications
+1 206 766 2906
kevan.m.goff-parker@boeing.com

SOURCE: Boeing

Web site: http://www.boeing.com/

Additional assets available online: Photos (1)