Boeing Statement on El Al's Selection of Next-Generation 737-900ER

SEATTLE, Feb. 8, 2011 – Boeing [NYSE: BA} is delighted that El Al Airlines has selected the 737-900ER for its fleet requirements. The 737-900ER's size and range make it ideally suited for El Al's network requirements. We look forward to continuing our long-term partnership with El Al and to finalizing the details of this transaction.
