

Boeing Celebrates Nok Air's 10th Anniversary with Special Livery Next-Generation 737

Boeing Celebrates Nok Air's 10th Anniversary with Special Livery Next-Generation 737

SEATTLE, July 11, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Boeing [NYSE: BA] delivered to Nok Airlines Public Company Limited (Nok Air) today a special livery Next-Generation 737-800 commemorating the Bangkok-based carrier's 10th anniversary.

The 737-800, owned by Ireland-based leasing company Avolon and operated by Nok Air, features the traditional bird-themed livery with the addition of stars, streamers and "10th Anniversary" painted on the airplane to celebrate the milestone.

"Today is an extremely exciting day for all of us at Nok Air, as the '10th Anniversary' aircraft and livery is a symbol of all the hard work and commitment of everyone at Nok Air in the past 10 years to achieve our goal of becoming Thailand's number one premium low cost carrier," said Nok Air CEO Patee Sarasin. "We are proud to have worked with Boeing since we started operations and this aircraft also marks a special milestone for our partnership."

In this photo, Nok Air's brand new 737-800 takes off from Boeing Field in Seattle.

Contact:
Tim Bader
International Communications
Boeing Commercial Airplanes
+1 206-859-3633
tim.s.bader@boeing.com

Jay Krishnan
Corporate Communications
Boeing Southeast Asia
+65 97291136
jay.krishnan@boeing.com

Wasit Duangsong
Corporate Communication Director
Nok Airlines Public Company Limited
+66 2 627 2607
Wasit.Dua@nokair.com

SOURCE Boeing

Additional assets available online:  Photos \(1\)