Boeing announces $100,000 donation to Mother Emanuel Hope Fund

Fund established to help family members of Charleston shooting victims

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C., June 18, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Boeing (NYSE: BA) announced today that it is donating $100,000 to the Mother Emanuel Hope Fund, established by theCity of Charleston to provide for the needs of the family members of the victims of yesterday's shooting.

"Our community is experiencing immense grief and mourning as we all try to come to grips with this horrible tragedy," said Beverly Wyse, Boeing South Carolina vice president and general manager. "But our community is revealing its true character as well, which is rooted in courage, hope and resilience. Boeing's commitment to this community is deep and strong, and we share in its grief. We are also committed to being a part of the healing in the days and weeks to come, and we continue to keep the families and friends of the victims in our thoughts and prayers."

Contact:

Rob Gross
Boeing South Carolina Communications
Office: 843-789-8084; Cell: 843-276-8643
robert.g.gross2@boeing.com

SOURCE Boeing